All dance disciplines work on the technique, flexibility, coordination, control, barre exercise, center work, corner work and combinations.

Ballet

Ballet is the cornerstone of all dance styles. This class focuses on classical ballet technique, body placement and alignment. Students work on movement quality, coordination and artistic control of the body.

Ballet/Jazzy Jrs.

Tchaikovsky meets Sinatra. A little bit of ballet and a little bit of jazz makes a wonderful combination course. Ballet and jazz shoes are required.

Funk

Funk is a modern style of jazz that incorporates some hip hop. Each class works on flexibility, strength, endurance and many new funky moves.

Jazzy Juniors

Jazz classes study technique as well as build strength and flexibility. Students work on classical jazz, modern and some introductory hip-hop.

Lyrical Ballet/Tech

This class offers a combo of ballet, jazz, technique, and drama. The class is perfect for older dancers who desire to express themselves through this style of dance set to modern music.

Twinkle Toes Ballet

Twinkle twinkle little toes, looking graceful in your bows. On the dance floor we pirouette, where we'll learn some other steps. Twinkle twinkle little toes, have fun with this one belles and beaus.

Tiny Toes & Me

You and your little one enjoy learning basic positions, hops, leaps, turns and many other fun ballet moves to music. Ballet dress attire and shoes are required for the children. Comfortable clothing and ballet shoes or socks are required for parents. This class does not participate in the recital.

Toe Tappers & Ballet

Tap dancing is based on using both feet to create rhythm. Beginning classes teach the basics of creating these rhythms. After learning the basics, students learn to incorporate their entire body into the movement and rhythm.

Hair Spray

Participants perform many dances to the soundtrack of Hair Spray. Once you start dancing, "You Can't Stop The Beat." "Welcome to the 60s," where you can say, "I Can Hear the Bells."

Dance Recital 2012

The annual dance recital will be held early June, with a dress rehearsal the Friday before. Pictures will be Wednesday, May 31 at the Bloomington Park District. Measuring for costumes is done on the first day of class. Parents must make arrangements with the teacher to get children measured if they are absent. Recital Class fees include a costume for the spring dance recital.
